

A Soul's Reflection (Paperback)

By Erica Wylder

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Detective Alison Lang stood in the doorway of her latest case, she was keenly aware of the impending doom, but couldn't for the life of her figure out how to stop the train wreck about to happen. It was clear to her, mostly due to the lack of any kind of evidence, that in order to find this sadistic psychopath, she was going to have to tap into a part of her that she really didn't like. It was one thing to know that someone was evil, and thrived on pain. It was even worse when you could access the depths of that evil by essentially placing yourself in the shoes of the victim. Her therapist had referred to it as empathetic tendencies. Her ex swore up and down she was psychic. She thought they both needed therapy more than she did, but that wasn't going to help her right now. Her partner blathered on about how he'd rather be spending the night, and for once, she had to agree with him. Anything would be better than...
