Char and Riley have encountered pain and heartache in the past. They were sure that they would never meet someone that would heal their hearts and allow them to love again. Then, on an ordinary Sunday, a newspaper in a minimart changes their lives forever. Although they share a strong physical connection, they ultimately hunger for one another's emotional touch. No matter how hard they've tried to stay away from each other, the magnetic force between them has always remained strong. Char and Riley have been through it all; love and loss, trust and deceit.
