It's time to reflect on the past to develop a deep understanding of who you are. Learning to love yourself will enable you to reach beyond the emotional boundaries. The process to discovering yourself and revealing your purpose. Being open to self-discovery not only opens doors to pursuing true happiness but also empowers you to grow in confidence, self-belief and self-awareness. These steps to embracing your purpose through self-exploration for a deeper, sense, finding their inner peace, harmony and true balance in their lives. Many are the plans in a person's heart, but it is the Lord's purpose that prevails (Proverbs 19:21). We more often believe that a job, or school and even marriage is what living purpose is however, that may not fit in God's purpose. This takes wisdom on our part to wait on God's peace before making presumptuous decisions that may have lifetime ramifications. There's great joy in the discovery of His purpose when we trust in Him rather than on our feelings or pressures from other people. God works through...
