

Playing Off the Rail A Pool Hustlers Journey

By David McCumber

It Books. Paperback. Condition: New. 384 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.4in. x 1.1in. At the age of 17, David McCumber was stricken with road fever that irresistible call to the itinerant life of a professional gambler. Twenty-two years later, he got the chance to follow that dream-not as a player but as the stakehorse (financial backer) for Tony Annigoni, a non-smoking, macrobiotic-eating Renaissance Pool Hustler, student of Eastern religion, and master of the pure green-felt poetry of the dead stroke. With 27,000 in Davids pocket they took off together on an astonishing four-month odyssey across America-traveling from seedy, hole-in-the-wall billiard parlors to high-class snooker rooms to high-tension pro tourneys, from Seattle to Miami and back again-exploring a shady twilight subculture and uniquely American mythos, in search of serious money, local glory, . . . and the perfect hustle.
