Dog Ear Publishing. Paperback. Condition: New. 276 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. The Eternal Fountain of Youth is a book written to help people to more fully understand the totality of life as a whole. The book helps people to intelligently understand true mindfulness and the genuine, all-encompassing, unregimented, compassionate awareness that discerns profoundly (far from the ordinary superficial). The book helps people to -- without relying on leaders or man-made systems --- independently flower into what deeply understands life, relationship, consciousness, and the intrinsic nature of time (as a whole). Many people cling, with others, to what stuffy, outside authority dictates as to what is truth and what is correct. However, only the individual can --- for himself or herself --- find the deepest truth; depending on others to lead us is fallacious and a waste of time (as it has not gotten us anywhere over millions of years thus far). No one but you can fully bring about the discovery of deep wisdom, harmony, profound reason and order. Many of us, unfortunately, perceive things fragmentarily, not wholly. We, as we were taught, tend to see only the details and the parts. . . not the whole. The Eternal Fountain of Youth helps people to go (for themselves) beyond this fragmentation and limited separation. . . to perceive things more holistically, with deep insight and wisdom. For instance, psychologically, inwardly, most people each see the perceiver as being separate from the perceived; however, that may be a crude, erroneous viewpoint --- that we were all taught --- and may be an expression of unrefined, inner conflict. Conflict inwardly can project as conflict outwardly. Think about it! Additionally, the book contains genuine -- not fabricated -- mystery. We can --- by observing the world without separation, without conflict that is...
