Where the Horses Run, Book I: Mass Extinction (Paperback)

By Judith Victoria Douglas

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This pre-dystopian saga tells of all the world s horses sudden disappearance. This mass vanishing of an entire world species begins this epic tale of an apocalyptic possibility. It s told through the experiences of a young woman and those in her immediate circle. They face a worldwide crisis never imagined likely. It thrusts Elle back into the stress-filled mental state resulting from a previous like-experience. She writes her book from the journal notes she kept beginning almost a year after the fateful event. After the shock of that impossible day Elle is grateful her giant black gelding isn t counted among the missing.yet. Before she loses him, fearing a recurrence of her previous experience with doctors and hospitals, she s determined to understand how and why the world s equine species could vanish en masse in the blink of an eye. Knowing is the only thing she believes will save her from repeating another breakdown, to be subject to more horrific treatments which already closed the inner doors of her memory. Many things, especially people, are now forgotten to...
