Joe Fleming earns his livelihood as a sailmaker and supports his mother and sisters. He adds to his income by taking part in prize-fights at sporting clubs. He is due to be married to Genevieve, who works in the Silversteins candy shop. Joe agrees to give up the game but asks that Genevieve watch his last fight, on the eve of their wedding, and she reluctantly agrees. On the eve of their wedding, twenty-year-old Jack Fleming arranges a secret ringside seat for his sweetheart to view her only rival: the game. Through Genevieve's apprehensive eyes, we watch the prizefight that pits her fair young lover, the Pride of West Oakland, against the savage and brutish John Ponta and that reveals as much about her own nature, and Joe's, as it does about the force that drives the two men in their violent, fateful encounter. A quick read, and very entertaining and gripping. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
