Old Wineskins (Paperback)

By Buddy Helms

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Old Wineskins is a continuation of the discipleship study that began with Outrageous Christian Discipleship. What would be really radical or outrageous? A good start might be setting aside our preconceptions and personal preferences to truly follow Jesus. Jesus said that no one puts new wine into an old wineskin. The skin would be broken, and the wine would be spilled and lost. He was clearly saying that the New Covenant would not fit within the confines of the Old Covenant. But, could there be more to it than that? Could there be a lesson here for the modern church? Church tradition that isn't necessarily Scriptural may be hindering our effectiveness. Let's face it. The way we've always done it isn't working. Perhaps we should focus more on Jesus and less on tradition. This is designed to be used in a small group. There are questions at the end of each chapter as discussion starters. Jesus said, If you continue in my word, you really are my disciples. You will know the truth, and the truth will set...
