That is, until the day his friends find him and return Mason to his true world, The Realms. Mason, still with no memory of his life before Leadville, has to come to terms with who he really is while trying to protect his world from the Twilight, a power that was once his own, a power now controlled by an evil god named Qadir. Secrets are uncovered as Mason learns things he never thought possible. But will he let the darkness overtake him? In the classic battle of light versus darkness, The Realms will face its greatest trial, and only Mason--with the help of his sister Lexi and his friends Bridget and Griffin Knight--can save The Realms from utter terror.
