

Human Error

By Valentina Halim

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In this book of poetry, the use of rhetorical devices such as similes and metaphors are used to describe things and experiences. The poetic technique called enjambment was deployed to create a sense of expectation in the reader and / or to add a dynamic movement of the verse whilst infusing both the classic and contemporary forms of poetry. The poems are like paintings; using words as colours which have the ability to contain different interpretations to whoever is reading or listening.
