Philatonian Productions, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For four and a half years author LaDonna M. Smith thought that she was married to the man of her dreams.but the marriage turned out to be a four and a half year nightmare, which God made disappear in moments. On August 14, 2003, LaDonna got married to a man she was prepared to spend the rest of her life. However, after days, and months of physical, mental, emotional and spiritual abuse she found the strength to leave him. But she would soon return to endure even more hardships some repetitious some worse. Finally, a year later she left for good and three and a half years later she filed for a divorce. Only to find out that her spouse had filed for an annulment a month later. How can he file for an annulment after so many years of marriage? Because - before, during, and after their marriage he was still legally married to his first wife. The book I Married Satan takes you inside the life of a woman who suffered, endured and eventually triumphed through an abusive marriage; swallowed the pain; forgave her ex -you fill in the blank and has since become stronger, wiser, and more spiritual than she could have ever imagined.
