LYDIA S CRY (PAPERBACK)

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Lydia Adams is a young girl from Heavens Way-lost and mistreated. Living in a tortured town and a house of hell, Lydia has nowhere to turn. Her mentally addled, drug addict mother can t protect her from her sick father, who is after her all the time; there is no hope for a stable home life. Unable to escape, she prays, hoping that someone will hear and answer those prayers. The adults in her life do not protect her; they take advantage of her. Even so, Lydia finds some good people who offer some sanctuary from the abuse of her parents. There s Frannie, her warm and understanding neighbor who offers baked goods, a mother s touch, and a welcome embrace. And then there s Sam, the rebel who offers her love and the ability to see herself clearly for the first time. When society realizes that Lydia isn t safe in the arms of her family any longer, she is sent to a state home. With everything changing, she s hoping for better things-but this new home might not be any safer than her family home.
