Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.From the preface: THE following Translation of an interesting portion of Mirkhond s General History of the East was completed many years back, under peculiarly un-favourable circumstances—the possession of only one Manuscript, and the want of some learned friend to consult on the difficult and doubtful pas-sages which occur in the original. The under-taking, commenced under such discouraging pro-spects, has at present been revised under more favourable auspices: the Library of the East-India College supplied two valuable Manuscripts; and Dr. WILKINS, of the East-India House, to whom Oriental Literature is so deeply indebted, kindly af-forded the use of three Manuscripts from the Library of the Honourable the East-India Company. In addition to these advantages, the Translator enjoyed that of consulting the MIRZA IBRAHIM, a learned native of Shiraz, who to an intimate know-ledge of the customs and languages of Western Asia unites an extensive acquaintance with English and European literature. The Translator now re-grets that he did not more frequently avail himself of such powerful aid, so cheerfully afforded on every occasion. In this version nothing has been...
