

Florida's Amazing Silver River: One of Florida's Natural Wonders (Paperback)

By Rick Bopp

Createspace, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Florida's Amazing Silver River is a photographic essay of one of Florida's natural wonders, the Silver River. This visual exploration is done through the medium of black and white photographic art. The book celebrates and memorializes the Silver River, which literally gushes out of the earth from the Silver Springs underground artesian wellspring located just east of Ocala, Florida. It historically produces over half a billion gallons of crystal clear, cool water each day. The river which flows from this spring head is a lush, pristine stretch of natural beauty and wildlife that is a rare treasure. Another special treat contained in Florida's Amazing Silver River are five pages showing the rhesus monkeys that can be spotted along the riverbank. They have descended from a group of monkeys which were introduced as a park attraction in the 1930s. Florida's Amazing Silver River also includes a practical map which details the access points to the Silver River. Florida's Amazing Silver River - One of Florida's Natural Wonders is the first edition of the series Florida s...
