Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from To Arms To Washington Imperial Washington, we fain would praise Thy constellated deeds in words of fire, Until on wings as strong as our desire, They sweep the empyrean s golden ways. Detraction burns to ashes in the rays Of thy great fame that mocks the poet s lyre, While as the years recede from thee still higher We see thy name magnificently blaze. Like some vast monument whose radiant head Aspires to the clouds while round are spread, As far as eye can reach the untempled plain, In eminence of isolation thou, With none to share in thy eternal reign, Thy country s seal forever on thy brow.
