By Woody Woodman, Richard Guimond

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Billy Pip is a young, shy boy who longs for adventure but after losing his father at sea, his mother has taught him to fear the world. Billy spends most of his time in a beached row boat locked to a big anchor. Here he reads about the world through his adventure stories. He makes a wish that the world would be a safer place so he could have a real adventure. While reading one of his adventure stories Billy falls asleep in his rowboat and his magical trip begins. He awakens in the middle of the Atlantic Ocean in his sinking rowboat, surrounded by hungry sharks. When all is looking desperate, Billy is rescued by a crazy captain named Captain Big Red Curtis. The captain is a massive, Scottish Texan, who wears a white captain s hat and jacket full of ribbons and medals. He also wears a kilt and cowboy boots. The captain is hunting a sea serpent name Sissy, and makes a deal with a reluctant Billy that if he will be his First Mate and help...
