Its not going to aggravate this one. I would note also that the House Committee has held only closed and classified hearings on this topic. The chairman mentioned in his opening remarks about what we found in the caves of Al Qaeda. What do we want to be talking about that for in a public session We almost slipped up, Senator Inhofe caught it when he was doing his homework last night, a potentially damaging mistake, while reading through the testimony, information that has been classified at the NRC as safeguards that was included in some of the written testimony today. Im not blaming the witnesses for that. The wit-nesses are trying to answer and be responsive. But this is not the forum, in front of the cameras, all over the world, to do this. The Government has deemed it sensitive enough so as to strictly limit access to only those who need to know. Im talking about safeguards, Im not talking about necessarily classi-fied or secret, as we call it in the formal sense. But there is a need-to-know basis, and I can tell you that everybody watching C - SPAN today does not need to know everything that we need to talk about here this morning. I understand that this information has leaked before. Ive read it, I read it in USA Today. But that doesnt mean that we have to further that and add to it and supplement it and give it credibility. Thats not what we do. If something is classified or listed as safe-guards and its in the newspaper, it doesnt mean we...
