Zen Monster Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 244 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in. Think Supernatural meets MIB and has a demented love child. Thats TOMAWAC. Its the story of Maestro, a time-traveling witch from the 24th century living our time who may be immortal, although he claims immortal is just another way to say no ones figured out a way to kill him yet. He assembles a team of misfits to investigate all forms of the paranomal. Its a Steven Spielberg, the local police captain likes to tell him, but I dont know if its Close Encounters or Poltergeist. His team Elizabeth Turner, an officer with the Galactic Police but masquerading as an FBI agent. Shes a shapeshifter hiding out on Earth as part of the galactic Witness Protection Program while she waits to give testimony against the infamous Alpaca Consortium. She decides to work with Maestro out of pure boredom and is the teams expert on extra-terrestrials. (Dont call them aliens around her!) Morrison Spook James. He died in 1961, but never stopped walking around and shooting off his mouth, as his brother Ross always says. Redefining the word zombie, Spook is a hip, metro smart-alec trapped in the body of a seventeen-year-old, despite being almost seventy. Over the years, he and Ross hunted everything from ghosts to vampires but Ross is only human and hes almost seventy, too. Spook joins Maestros team as the expert on all things supernatural. He hopes to learn more about magic from Maestro and, truth be told, hes mostly kinda lonely. Spook was first seen in the Tango Triptych series. Reginald Muscle Sato has two jobs: kill evil creatures and beat people up. Hes on the team for when they meet up with something Turners tech and Spooks magic cant handle. Hey sometimes...
