Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Ukrainia and the Peace-Conference Important and difficult problems are put before the Peace Conference of the Allied Powers. There is urgent need of establishing a new system of the world on the ruins of old ones, broken down by the war. The first task must be to bring a general and permanent peace to the peoples stirred up by the Great War, and it is obvious that this object cannot be secured by merely proclaiming the ideas of right and justice and the principle of self-determination of peoples, but those ideas and that principle will have to be realized, to lead the peoples of the universe into the peaceful paths of order and of pacific and orderly international traffic. Even the idea of a genuine League of Nations can only be accomplished, if provision is made that all peoples, who as members of the League of Nations must on principle enjoy the same rights, shall obtain equal rights, and no people shall be ruled by another people or dependent on another people s mercy. Without solving and actually carrying through the problems, which helped to bring about the Great War, permanent peace is an impossible thing.
