S The success of any drill depends upon the careful attention and united efforts of not only the leaders, but every member of the drill, letting the one who directs give all the instructions. Each member should walk erect, chin well up, hands at sides, keeping two paces apart turning square corners and making all signs and bows to gether. At signal all starting to march with left foot, stop ping and turning at same instant. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
