Xulon Press, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . p.p1 p.p2 p.p3 Christians, including the authors who have been mistakenly indoctrinated over the years to believe in and practice tithe-paying, may find it excruciatingly difficult to accept the biblically revelatory truth about tithing. This newly-discovered biblical truth that contradicts the misleading doctrinal teaching(s) on tithing may be very upsetting and offensive to some, and difficult to accept by others due to the spiritual and mental struggle involved in accepting and changing our thinking and practice. But as Christians, we cannot deny or ignore the truth of that sacrificial act of grace by Jesus Christ on the Cross of Calvary that changed or annulled everything related to the O.T. sacrificial system including tithes and offerings. This is not to suggest that the New Dispensation church does not need funding for its operation. The funding it needs is based on a new paradigm introduced by Paul in 2Corinthians 8:12 etc. and not on an externally imposed/annulled O.T. law. The challenge for us, as faithful Christians, is to discover the truth and rid ourselves of the guilt-ridden feelings imposed upon us through the consistent reading of Malachi 3:8-10, and let the Spirit of God guide our decisions in reference to the financial support we contribute to His church. The authors, of Tithing: The Biblically Revealed Truth, have conducted a comprehensive study of this subject and presented clear and convincing theological argumentations that led them to a biblically objective conclusion of the tithing issue, the irrelevance and inapplicability of the tithing law in the Christian Church. Earlington and Evelyn researched and wrote this book in an attempt to discover the answers to many of the silently nagging and unanswered questions about the validity and application...
