

Before You Seek Revenge

By Frederick Zeier

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 380 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. Danni Walton married her first love, but her husband was neither the man he pretended to be nor was he true to the marriage. Even the birth of their daughter was not enough to mend the developing rift. Peter Walton was warm, caring and outgoing from the pulpit, but always rigid, cold and demanding at home. With her daughter in high school, Danni's decision to enter the work force preserved her self-esteem. Each day proved to be challenging and rewarding and she found herself increasingly drawn to one of her co-workers. Bill Cannon was commanding in stature and did something that Danni never experienced at home; Bill made her laugh. While representing the company in New York, Danni's promising career was cut short by the brutal gang rape of her daughter. Peter explained his reluctance to involve the police in the rape investigation as concern for his position as the pastor of the largest church in Atlanta. His reticence was intended to conceal his behavior, but in reality it was an attempt to mask his true character. When Danni discovers...
