CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 182 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.4in. Jon Lyman is a boy full of adventure. But he finds himself in trouble first with the Paiutes in Nevada when he demands part of a deer he was hunting that some of the Indians had killed. He then goes home to find his mother upset that he snuck out of home without permission again. His mother is upset because he is only five years old, and shouldn't be out exploring things on his own. He also has another mother he calls Aunt Penny, she is his father's second wife. His father is a Polygamist Mormon who was asked to go to Nevada to settle a small community called Muddy River. Brigham Young then asks Charles Lyman Jones' father to move his family to a new settlement in Utah north of Kanab and to live the United Order where the community shares everything including food, land, and any money they receive. They call the new town Orderville, because they were to live the United Order. On their way to Kanab they are caught in a flash flood where they end up losing their wagon and all of their possessions. This makes Charles and his family destitute relying upon the church members in Kanab for assistance. Many of the other people who were in Nevada also were called to settle Orderville and are also poor. They stay in Kanab for a while until they are able to choose a site for their new town. While in Kanab, Jon meets William Stewart the son of Levi Stewart the Bishop in Kanab. William befriends Jon and teaches him how to shoot a gun, and promises to take him hunting some time. Jon also...
