

Two Finger Salute at Agincourt (Paperback)

By Walter Shields

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This book is a story about an 11 year-old boy who is inspired to become an archer by the stories of battle that are told to him by his father and grandfather. Eager to learn all that he can about the using and making of longbows and arrows the hero of the story, Crispin Bowyer finally achieves his ambition to become an archer in the King s army aged 25, when he takes up a key role in the battle of Agincourt. The Battle of Agincourt has become the most legendary victory in a series of battles between England and France that later became known as The Hundred Years War that occurred between 1337 and 1453. Taking place in a muddy field after heavy rainfall, the battle commenced after a series of taunts from either side. At 11 am on 25th October 1415 thousands of arrows rained down on the French Army. Ragamuffin English peasants, who were greatly outnumbered by the French, fought their way to victory against the odds. Poorly dressed, in ill-health, many with excrement dripping down their legs as...
