Every year Reno hosts a huge bicycle race, hundreds enter. When Max Holland, the man everyone is betting on to win the ten thousand dollar purse, is shot dead in Jack s office, there s concern that racers are being targeted. Jack is discreetly hired to find the killer. When Victor Burch stopped by the bakery to drop off a box for Mr. Bryan, he had no idea he was about to go on a treasure hunt with, of all people, Nene Albright. This unlikely duo will follow one clue after another to find an unknown prize-which they d find a lot sooner if they d quit stopping for food. On her own, Gaga Albright has her own problems. She has reason to believe that somehow she s managed to rent the upstairs apartment to weirdos, again. What? She wonders. Am I some sort of magnet for perverts? While the lady of the house is away, the husband is playing around with a leggy blonde. Will Jack find Max s killer before another racer loses more than a race? Will Nene and Burch find the treasure, or just have another snack? And Gaga-will she turn a blind eye to the cheating hubby upstairs, or kick some butt and take some names.
