FBC LTD, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Economics: Lesson 10 In dealing with this subject, as indeed with most others, one must begin by a definition. What do we mean by International Trade? What is the economic definition of a nation? Bagehot says that a nation, in the economic sense, is a group of producers, within which labor and capital freely circulate, and adds the corollary that labor and capital will not, as a rule, migrate beyond the boundaries of the nation. Hence, the essential characteristics of a nation, from our point of view, are: (1) Free circulation of labor and capital within that particular group of producers; (2) more or less complete immobility of all the agents of production as regards transfer to other groups.
