I realize that over the years we have been repeating this theme in several different ways. Therefore, when we hear it, we may think that we have already heard it more than once. Why should we repeat it again and again And this is the question I have asked myself. I think the answer is that Gods testimony and way so essential. On the one hand it is very basic; it is our foundation. If our foundation is not firmly set, how can we go through the stormy time today Yet, on the other hand, I believe nothing is more sublime than Gods testimony and way because this is related to Gods eternal purpose. Even before the foundation of the world, before there was anything except God, He purposed a purpose according to His good pleasure. This is something that pleases Him deeply.
