Louisiana State University Press, United States, 2009. Hardback. Book Condition: New. 315 x 257 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. In the first half of the nineteenth century, when road transportation was still a rather primitive affair in the South, families would open their doors for what they called an at home, entertaining friends and relatives who came and went throughout the day. This book is an at home of sorts: a celebration of Tennessee s antebellum domestic decor and its influence on interiors today. Donna Dorian and Anne Hall showcase twenty historic homes rich in material culture. From museum houses to meticulously preserved private antebellum homes to houses decorated by contemporary homeowners in a historic style, each displays its original furnishings or is refurbished with authentic period pieces. Although the book includes many of Tennessee s great historic houses, such as Andrew Jackson s Hermitage and General James Winchester s Cragfont, this sampling of domiciles represents a range of economic and social strata. With homes including a log cabin furnished with vernacular pieces designed by regional cabinetmakers and high-style brick mansions of planters and merchants filled with fine furniture, the book points to the remarkable legacy of Tennessee s decorative arts between 1800 and 1860. For each house, Dorian gives a lively brief history of its construction and occupants. She then describes in detail the decor, stunningly captured in natural light by Hall s photographic lens. Together, words and images focus on the arrangement and selection -- as well as the form, function, and style -- of furniture, portraits, wall coverings, paint techniques, lighting, carpets, wood and plasterwork, window treatments, textiles, china, silver, ceramics, pottery, hardware, gardens, and more: in short, all of the ornamental and practical touches of a home that reflect the individuals who lived and entertained...
