An old, onetime captain of the Ship, Lincoln always knew this day would come. For just as births are carefully planned, so are deaths. Lincoln had lived a long, beautiful life, but after today it ends. And although he must reckon with his fate, this is not just a somber tale. It is a story of love and sacrifice, told in the context of the most advanced civilization ever to exist--a society that has taken to the stars in an effort to save all that is best in humanity. Come follow Lincoln through his internal struggles, his joy in having lived, and his journey towards peace. The End is just the beginning. About the Author EXO Books is the pen name and publishing company of a science fiction writer. He is a man who lives in New York City, USA, Earth. The name EXO Books was inspired from the book of Exodus in the Bible. An exodus is the departure of a people out of slavery, to a promised land. It is a journey punctuated with peaks and valleys of joy and sorrow, through darkness ever towards the light. Inherent to this great journey of ours is the notion that while we continue to search for a better life, this search may not be fruitful in our individual lifetimes. Still, we try. Through it all we are sustained by our love for each other, and by hope. The road is long, my friends. We trek on together. About the Illustrator Kimberly Hazen is a woman whose path in life has been forged based on her undying drive to create something where...
