Excerpt from A Collection of Papers on Various Subjects To one interested in Nature nothing can afford more pleasure or instruction than a days ramble in the fields and forests. There is a peculiar charm in the varied forms of organic life and something so lonely and full of pathos in the aspect of the hills and rocks, the grand old oaks and whispering grasses, that it fills one with a deep, indescribable emotion, an emotion that is akin to religion, a communion with nature, a silent uplifting of spirit to Spirit, on the mighty arch of thought.
