A Rainy Day on Wall Street: Trump Wins Election (Paperback)

By John Sealey

New Haven Publishing Ltd, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This is sensual and erotic story of contemporary themes set on Wall Street and Greenwich Village, exploring romance, sexuality, materialism, self-liberation, that delves into lives of two richly layered characters from opposite ends of the political spectrum, taking place during the Presidential election with all the hopes and fears of what Donald Trump and Hilary Clinton might or might not do if elected. Jessica is English and talks with a slight cockney accent. She is in her early twenties, attractive with a sexy cheeky face. Her mother is English, her father American. Matt Jarratt in his early forties, handsome, is married to Audrey who is very house proud, keeping the house spotless and clinical to the point it is almost impossible to feel comfortable in. Matt is a partner in her father s financial management company that has prestige offices on Wall Street. Matt is also being groomed as a potential Republican candidate for the Senate. Jessica with a group of other disgruntled friends joins the protestors already demonstrating on Wall Street against corporate greed, and the banking system....
