There were a score round us when the fool, little knowing the man with whom he had to deal, and as little how to lose like a gentleman, flung the words in my teeth. He thought, I ll be sworn, that I should storm and swear and ruffle it like any common cock of the hackle. But that was never Gil de Berault s way. For a few seconds after he had spoken I did not even look at him. I passed my eye insteadsmiling, BIEN ENTENDUround the ring of waiting faces, saw that there was no one except De Pombal I had cause to fear; and then at last I rose and looked at the fool with the grim face I have known impose on older and wiser men.
