I am perfectly confident of it. Edward Sekell is never mistaken in any thing connected with his profession, when he has looked the ground all over. Poor fellow! It wont take you long to turn his sorrow into joy; and he will see what advantage it is to be associated with a good fighter. I hope he will take a lesson from you, and see that there is no need of giving every thing up. You can show the company that Millerton is trying to rob them; and they wont stand it. At nine oclock the next morning, I was at the room in Tenth Street. Jorman soon came in, and I placed Sekells letter before him, without a word. He read it through two or three times, and then began to walk back and forth on the thread-bare track in the carpet. At length he stopped before me with a very stern expression in his face. Now, Nolly, he said, you have got to give up some of your nonsense. I 11 be cust if I am going to be bulldozed by you forever, and not permitted to have my way in any thing. Youve got to let me finish paying for Ellermere, and then you have got to take money enough to start you off in planting. It is a pretty story if I cant be allowed to get some satisfaction out of my money....
