

The Purple Room

By Mauro Casiraghi

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 268 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. A woman stands naked, silhouetted against a window in a purple room. It's the only memory Sergio has of the week leading up to the accident that almost killed him when he was scuba diving off the Tuscan coast. He remembers nothing else about that woman, but the love he feels for her will drive him to delve into the mystery surrounding those days that are missing from his memory. The Purple Room is a magnetic and gripping psychological drama, but filled with those moments of bittersweet comedy, misunderstanding and heartbreak that all too often punctuate every search for a partner. Sergio's is a journey of self-discovery, in which a deep and uncompromising self-awareness goes hand in hand with the universal desire to find someone to love. Winner of the Carver Prize and Carlo Cassola Prize for Literature. EDITORIAL REVIEWS Intense and moving. Delicate like the touch of cotton sheets in the summer. A page-turner, kidnaps the reader with impeccable style and storytelling worth a prize. - Booksblog Casiraghi's style is smooth, tight and spare. Il Corriere della Sera A...
