LOOK INSIDE ON KINDLE and FONT SIZE 14 Preface: Set around 2020 after historic global events, which have changed the world and the political dynamics governing the globe, are now effecting the agency and agenda of those dealing with a disaster besetting the earth. Giving an insight into future developments when freedom of information is suppressed and thought best, shielding the wrong doing in a democratic Europe. Relying solely on its secret services for a solution, politicians for their integrity, its allies pressured for support some of whom have a different agenda, to contain the disaster through The Union. Whilst crafting a shadow to normal security work The Union, starts to uncover other secret forces unknown to the rest of the world, and would prefer to stay that way, and becomes one man versus the rest. In a world governed by oil, insurgence and trouble. The Union now considers the supernatural as a possible solution to the crisis and may be for other situations too, but what are the politics of the unknown the supernatural as the reader colours in the revelations. All to be brought under control by The Union, as they encroach on darker forces surfacing through the fissure in time complete with milestones from the past to the future just as in today's world.
