One More Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .NEVER MISS ANOTHER TAX DEDUCTION No matter how good a tax preparer is, if an independent contractor does not provide all of the necessary information, that tax return will be wrong. And, they will either pay too much tax or fail an IRS tax audit, if selected. Do My Business Taxes Please will help to insure that you don't overlook important information. It was designed for tax professionals and their self-employed clients to use as a tax preparation tool. This organizer shows you how to document your business activities, as well as self-employment income and expenses. It requires no computer, special math or bookkeeping skills, and includes all of the forms necessary for tracking a year's worth of income and expenses. Learn how to grow your business on pre-tax dollars by understanding exactly what the IRS expects of the independent contractor. Written in easy-to-understand terms, this organizer will work for any self-employed individual. And, once it's filled out, it will contain everything necessary for filing a Schedule C tax return. Simple forms have been included for tracking income, inventory, and expenses in a manner that will satisfy both the IRS and those tax professionals working to prepare Schedule C tax returns. Space has been provided for the entry of information needed for home office deductions, vehicle expenses, end-of-year inventory, mileage documentation, and other important tax data.
