Set against the lively, pulsing backdrop of 1980s Jamaica, this evocative thriller captures the dark mystery and steamy passion of the most iconic of Caribbean islands. In an exciting chain of events set in motion by a murder in Negril, Jamaican Draw follows the dual story lines of Carson, a young American artist, and his former girlfriend, Molly, in their parallel adventures across the island and their entanglements with a host of colorful characters. The tempestuous tale travels headlong from one side of the country to the other, melding the tropical temperament of traditional Jamaican values and villages with the country-changing revolution brought on by the roots and reggae movement.
