Spirit & Life Publications. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 464 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.2in. This book chronicles the personal warfare of a writer who when given the task from Almighty God to warn the public about impending war conditions, strives herself to stay alive, amid haters, stalkers, death threats and stolen manuscripts; even at the hands of so called Christian leaders who would rather shoot the messenger than prepare America for war. More than just a book about personal struggles, The War Journal Volume I is about arising to the occasion armed with a divine power and purpose, and succeeding, no matter what. Inside the pages of this book are riveting predictions of fully fledged battles being fought on American soil: from terrorist bombings, to armed tanks and army occupied US cities. This book foretells a modern day epic more powerful than that of David and Goliath; for it is not the strength of the US military that wins this war, but it is the faith of the few Americans who believe that the God who inspired our nations birth will be faithful to honor His covenant to protect us. The War Journal Volume I is filled with predictions of supernatural victories as America moves in Gods power to defeat the deadliest enemies she has ever known. This is book is about a devastating war and an overwhelmingly supernatural victory. But most of all it is about patriotism; to ones country and to the God in whom our forefathers once trusted. A book that will passionately compel the reader to aspire to a supernatural level of greatness beyond human imagination, The War Journal Volume I is a must read for anyone facing a tough challenge with no apparent hope in sight. It..
