

The Surly Bonds of Earth (Hardback)

By Sanford L. Graves

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2005. Hardback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . The entire world was aflame in a bitter war for survival. Europe had been struggling for its very existence for some time, and there were clouds of war drifting inexorably toward America. A sneak surprise attack on Pearl Harbor galvanized Americans to action. Patriotic fever reigned supreme and all citizens readily answered the nation s call to service. One youngster, still a senior in high school, waited impatiently to become old enough to put on a uniform and join the millions who had responded to their country s call. To become a pilot and join the ranks of Colin Kelly, The Flying Tigers, The Memphis Belle, Major Bong and others was a 24/7 dream and fantasy. I was that dreamer. This is an account of one young pilot s participation in that conflict. This true historical account commences with childhood fantasies about becoming a pilot, and the sometimes-clumsy effort to join the Army as an aviation cadet. Once accepted for training there was a year of intense training before joining a wartime unit with 65 combat missions over France and Germany. All...
