Outskirts Press, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Unique Book that Captures the Full Beauty of Nature and the Human Spirit. Stirring images and piercing poetry come together in this gorgeous collection from the multitalented Mac Kenney. Here are 20 vibrant color photographs that evoke the full range of human emotions, set against powerful verses on love, life, and the beauty that surrounds us. Ponder the mysteries of existence from a single lonely bench; reflect on what really matters as the sun drops beneath a brilliant red horizon; and examine the incredible diversity of life on our planet as you gaze on nature's wonders. Those images gain even more meaning as you read Kenney's memorable poems that urge a greater appreciation of our short time on earth. That's the message of the poem Life, which reminds us of the dangers of settling for a 9-5 existence and the incredible reward of being bolder. So Little Time is about taking advantage of our brief appearance and our ability to take control of it. You Are Here, Where Am I is about accepting the love that's out there waiting for us. And that's just for starters. Perfect for reading in sequence or in bits and pieces as you need them, My Pictures, My Words is the kind of book you'll return to again and again to receive the most important kind of nourishment—food for the soul.
