21ST CENTURY VISION FOR BLACK AMERICA

Trafford Publishing, Canada, 2007. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 254 x 173 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .America s no deal for reparations, erosion of an affirmative action, growth in Hispanic and Asian immigrants and shift to national terrorism concerns have left the interest of African Americans out on the far limb in the 21st century. Merely reactionary to racial hatred and prejudices, black organizations have shifted their awareness campaigns to one of AIDS/HIV, leaving the sting for a national black agenda all but diminished. Out-of-touch and aging civil rights leaders are ineffective to the cry for social and economic reform for the deprived black American culture. Seemingly scared and clueless, a shifting of the guards is due. While the black academia have integrated into the suburbs, urban blacks are left with religion for hope and restraint of anger that has opened the gate to a HIP HOP culture inducing ignorance, illicit sex and vulgarity. As religion continues with its wait to die or wait for God philosophy, black culture in America is left to chance, toss of the dice and entertainers for tranquility. It is the African Americans interested in the here and now as well as the future of their children that have generated reason for this book. This book, 21st Century Vision for Black America, provides a realistic positive next step to the sojourn of black Americans. It traces blacks from their heroic ancestral days when education was marveled and thriving societies occurred until a substitution of education for cults, magic, voodoo and sorcery that allowed European conquerors to enrich selfish African leaders while enslaving their people. Unlike other books which bores the reader with horrors of the slave trade, this book exploresEuropean philosophy and the role Hollywood and sports played in...
