The sable-browed queen descends from her throne, With her glittering train, and now hastes to be gone. A rustle creeps through the oak and the fir; A chirp sets the reeds and rushes astir. The glad day is breaking, the orient glows With a thousand rich tintings of amber and rose. The last truant star now fades on our sight; The cricket, the piper, that cheered the lone night Creeps away to this nest; the drowsy cuckoo Shakes from his pinions bright drops of dew; Robin awakes with a song in his throat, The lark to his mate trills his musical notes. The herds awake and the lord of the fold Drowsily shakes his great coat of wool. Steals a murmur, a gurgle the woodland along, A twitter, a warble, a ripple of song; The...
