We American Museum of Safety Devoted to the Safety Health and Welfare of Industrial Workers and the Advancement of the Science of Industry (REGISTERED V S PATENT OFFICE) Supplement to Bulletin American Museum of Safety March 19 15 Published by The American Museum of Safety 14-18 West 24th Street New York Free to Members Fifteen Cents a Copy Safety Bulletin of The American Museum of Safety March (Supplement) 1915 The Anthony N. Brady Memorial Medals The family of the late Anthony N. Brady has authorized the award annually by The American Museum of Safety of a gold medal to that American electric railway company which for the year of the award shall have done most to conserve the safety and health of the public and of its employes. In addition to the gold medal awarded to the company, a replica in silver will annually be awarded to that department, or that individual, which has most contributed to the successful record of the company; and another replica in bronze will be awarded to that employe of the company whose services have been of the greatest value in the promotion of safety and health. The conditions of the annual competition and the method of determining the awards have been arranged by the American Electric Railway Association on an eminently fair basis....
