LAS TRES VIDAS DE STEFAN ZWEIG (PAPERBACK)

Global Rhythm Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: Spanish . Brand New Book. Before settling on The World of Yesterday as the title for his autobiography, Stefan Zweig had considered My Three Lives. It would have been an appropriate title, for his life was, in fact, comprised of three major stages: his early years in fin de siècle Vienna and subsequent rise up the literary ranks; the two decades of constant work, popular acclaim, and personal happiness with his first wife in Salzburg; and his self-imposed exile from Austria. In this biography, Oliver Matuschek meticulously examines the complex life of the Austrian writer, combing through previously inaccessible or unknown letters and documents to trace Zweig's journey from celebrated author to desperate man and suicidal man who would ultimately take his life in a small Brazilian town. Antes de escoger El mundo de ayer como el título de su autobiografía, Stefan Zweig había considerado usar Mis tres vidas. Hubiese sido un título apropiado ya que, en efecto, su vida constaba de tres grandes etapas: sus años de aprendizaje en Viena finisecular y los posteriores de ascenso en el escalafón literario; los dos decenios de trabajo constante, éxito popular y brillo mundano que vivió con su primera esposa en Salzburgo; y su exilio de Austria. En esta biografía, Oliver Matuschek meticulosamente investiga la compleja vida del escritor austriaco, basándose en cartas y documentos hasta ahora inaccesibles o desconocidos para trazar el viaje de Zweig desde autor celebre hasta un hombre desesperado y suicida que terminaría tomándose la vida en un pequeño pueblo brasileño.
