Blackweald Press, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .How is love measured? By how much you re willing to bleed for another person? Do they show you one of those pain-rating scales and ask how much your relationship hurts? Point to the most anguished face and win a prize. Congratulations! You must truly be loved. At what point is it more humane to just rip each other s hearts out instead of cutting each other open with sharp words and lies? If love is measured in scars and sacrifices, I win. Your dad s been in an accident, Bryce. You re all he has, Bryce. Do the right thing, Bryce. And I do, because I m reluctantly good, even though my father only knows how to make me bleed. I leave the bright colors of Seattle for my father s stagnant world and his decaying mind. He doesn t want me around, but he needs my memories. I don t want to be around, but maybe I need closure before the cloaked man takes him away forever, just like my mother and brother. Only thing is, I never learned to be careful what I asked for, and when I tear down the wall separating my father and me and find that everything I knew about him was a facade concealing unimaginable truths, forgiveness will come easy, but rectification might cost me everything.
