God Seeks Us is a book written by God to get the attention of the 200 million people in the U.S who do not attend Synagogue, Church, Mosque or whatever. God reintroduces Himself and gently urges the reader to turn back to God and their own religion. This is an interfaith book and does not call for conversion to a new religion. There is a DVD containing three films about God that complements this book. Rabbi Steven Pinsky says this book is a genuine guide for Jews, Christians, Muslims and others who want to find their individual ways back to a meaningful and fulfilling spiritual path. Rev. James B. Cook, Episcopal Church Rector, says this book is for anyone who has kind of given up on God and is a perfect guide for individual or group study. Imam Yahya Hendi, PHD calls the book amazing, because of its many thought provoking ideas and passages. There is a special section for Corporations, Business and Local Governments which shows how these organizations can gain financially. They would help God reach out to 60 percent of their employees who do not attend Synagogue, Church, Mosque or wherever. The reader is encouraged to view for more information.
