

Carpenter Volume 33

By -

RareBooksClub. Paperback. Book Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. Paperback. 398 pages. Dimensions: 9.7in. x 7.4in. x 0.8in. This historic book may have numerous typos and missing text. Purchasers can download a free scanned copy of the original book (without typos) from the publisher. Not indexed. Not illustrated. 1913 Excerpt: . . . to coast, different arrangements had to be made. The General Secretary-Treasurer could not then attend to the many wants of the organization, and so he had to engage two rooms for the General Office and hire a clerk as an assistant. As the years went by, it became necessary to move into an up-to-date office building and to secure four rooms for office purposes with additional help. During the last dozen years the organization grew at a rapid pace. It jumped from a membership of 40,000 to a membership close to a quarter of a million. This increase meant greater responsibilities and liabilities. It meant more work, a heavier daily mail, a larger office force, and a larger office. It meant that business must be transacted in a business manner in an up-to-date fashion. In order to cope with the growing and numerous demands and...

READ ONLINE
[6.4 MB]

Reviews

Good e-book and beneficial one. it absolutely was writtern quite flawlessly and beneficial. I am delighted to explain how this is basically the very best ebook i have read through within my very own daily life and may be he greatest ebook for at any time.

-- Prof. Leonardo Parker

This pdf will never be straightforward to begin on looking at but really entertaining to read through. I really could comprehended everything out of this composed e pdf. I am just very easily could possibly get a enjoyment of looking at a composed ebook.

-- Dr. Mallory Bashirian Sr.