Not illustrated. 1902 Excerpt: .in the thigh; he fell, and his men, who had before been greatly excited, now became furious when they beheld their commanding officer weltering in his blood. Every man of the Italian guard was put to death on the spot. Meanwhile Captain Powis s detachment had made great progress, and finally entered the fort by the salient angle. It has been said, and, for aught I know to the contrary, with truth, that it was the first which established itself in the outwork; but this is of little import in the detail, or to the reader. All the troops engaged acted with the same spirit and devotion, and each vied with his comrade to keep up the character of the fighting division. Almost the entire of the privates and non-commissioned officers were killed or wounded; and of fifteen officers, which constituted the number of those engaged, not one escaped unhurt! Of the garrison, but few escaped; the Commandant, and about eighty, were made prisoners; the rest, in endeavouring to escape under the guns of the fortress, or to shelter themselves in San Roque, were either bayoneted or drowned in the 1 There were no troops of the Italian guard in this part of Spain, though there were some of the Vclites in Catalonia. Italians there were, but only men incorporated in ordinary French line regiments. On the 30th of March two breaching-batteries, armed with twenty-six guns of heavy calibre, and of the very best description,...
