Sassy Britches Publishing, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Harvey s Lake the Forty Page Poem is the first revealing glimpse into the life of the character known as Louise. Louise is the author s main character in her other novels; The Final Bath, and Into the Hands of Strangers. Dark and mercurial in essence and form, the story laps languidly over the shore of powerful, angst-filled moments and events. It is emotional, guttural, and yet endearing in its approach of telling the story of a girl s uncertain search for meaning in life. Black, like the turbulence under the still waters of Harvey s Lake, secrets are revealed. Some are released, while others sink into silent obscurity. The accompanying Forty Page Poem plays an integral role in Louise s life. It is both sensitive, yet volcanic in its intensity. Thoughtful and piercing-to-the-heart, the lyrical words in this poem play the soulful background music in the unfolding drama of Harvey s Lake. Written in the uncensored hand of a girl who has been 15 for so long, the tender verse reveals a very old soul trapped in the confines of youth. She would have to wait years to make any sense of it all.
